Subject: Offer of a fixed rate business term loan

Dear Ms Dorval,

Following our meeting of 2 October and the review of your financial statements, we are pleased to offer Lumen Bakery SARL a business term loan to finance the purchase of new baking equipment, on the terms set out below.

The bank agrees to lend a principal amount of EUR 80,000 (eighty thousand euros). The loan will be repaid over a term of 60 months by equal monthly instalments of principal and interest (constant annuity), the first instalment falling due one month after drawdown.

Interest will accrue at a fixed nominal annual rate of 4.20%, which will remain unchanged for the entire term of the loan.

An arrangement fee of EUR 1,200 is payable once, upon signature of the loan agreement. No other fees, commissions or insurance charges apply to this loan.

This offer remains valid until 9 November 2026. Should you wish to accept it, please return a signed copy of this letter to your relationship manager before that date.

Yours sincerely,

Julien Marchetti
